KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Zoë Timms

The senior class officers of the Class of 2016 have selected Zoë Timms, founder of the Women's Education Project, to address degree candidates during the winter commencement ceremony.

A 2009 winner of the Wisconsin Alumni Association's Forward Under 40 Award, Timms received a bachelor's degree in history from the university in 1997.

Timms' journey began when she spent a year in Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh as part of UW–Madison's Year-in-India program. Several years later, she returned to work as an on-site director for the program in Madurai, Tamil Nadu.

In India, Timms met many young women whose poverty led to early marriages, unsafe jobs and low wages contributing to debt and illness. While some nonprofit groups worked to encourage literacy and early education, she saw none that could help women reach other goals: studying in higher education and developing skills that could lead to meaningful careers.

In 2002, after a discussion with a fellow Badger alum helped solidify her idea, Timms founded the Women's Education Project (WEP) and its first center in Madurai. The organization's mission is to educate women of limited means to become knowledgeable, confident, self-reliant, and responsible leaders.

Timms hoped that the center could provide scholarships, academic support, and resources for these young women to complete high school or college and enjoy professional, fulfilling careers. She also wanted the center to be welcoming and home-like, a place where women could gain confidence among friends.

Today, 280 students attend WEP's three centers in South India. More than 500 others have graduated; many work as teachers, nurses, legal secretaries, computer operators, technicians, and entrepreneurs.

UW–Madison's thoughtful preparation helped Timms explore India — first in Hyderabad as a student, then in Madurai as a professional. Today, she travels between WEP's New York headquarters and its centers in India several times a year to monitor its work.

"As I discovered at Wisconsin, learning takes place inside and outside the classroom," she said, in her Forward Under 40 profile. "The process is a constant adventure."

CHANCELLOR

Rebecca M. Blank

Rebecca M. Blank became chancellor of the University of Wisconsin–Madison in July 2013.

When she took the position, she spoke of two distinct agendas for UW–Madison: providing the next generation with the skills necessary to succeed in a rapidly changing economy and maintaining the university’s position as a global leader in innovation and research.

An economist by training, Blank served in top positions at the U.S. Department of Commerce from 2009 to 2013. She started as under secretary for economic affairs, then was named deputy secretary and acting secretary, managing nearly 45,000 employees and a $10 billion budget. During her time at Commerce, Blank not only led a large and complex organization, she also worked to connect research and innovation with job creation and economic growth. Before joining the department, she was a fellow at the Brookings Institution, a nonprofit public policy research think tank in Washington, D.C.

Blank brings strong academic credentials to the position of chancellor. She served as dean and professor of public policy and economics in the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy at the University of Michigan from 1999 to 2008. In her role as dean, she launched such innovations as interdisciplinary graduate programs and an undergraduate public policy major. Earlier in her career, she was a member of the faculty at Northwestern University and Princeton University, as well as an assistant visiting professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She also spent two years, from 1997 to 1999, as a member of the President’s Council of Economic Advisers.

Blank was born in Missouri and later moved to Minnesota. She earned an undergraduate degree in economics from the University of Minnesota and a doctoral degree in economics from MIT.

Earlier this year, Blank was awarded the Daniel Patrick Moynihan Prize by the American Academy of Political and Social Science. Named after the late senator, the Moynihan Prize honors individuals who use sound analysis and social science research to inform public policy while also contributing to the public discourse on society’s most pressing issues.

PROVOST

Sarah C. Mangelsdorf

Sarah C. Mangelsdorf is the provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Wisconsin–Madison. She began serving as provost in August 2014.

Mangelsdorf came to Madison after serving six years as the dean of the Judd A. and Marjorie Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences at Northwestern University, where she was also a member of the Department of Psychology. Prior to Northwestern, Mangelsdorf served from 2004 to 2008 as the Henry E. Preble Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign — the first woman to hold that position. She joined the University of Illinois Department of Psychology in 1991 and served as associate provost from 2001 to 2003 and head of the psychology department from 2003 to 2004. She previously served four years as an assistant professor of psychology at the University of Michigan.

Mangelsdorf's scholarship focuses on social and emotional development in infancy and early childhood and she is the author of numerous articles on developmental psychology. At the University of Illinois, she was honored several times for her teaching. She won the Mabel Hohenboken Teaching Award in 1997 and the William Prokasy Teaching Award, the college's highest award for teaching, in 1998.

She has served on the editorial boards of five academic journals, including the editorial boards of Child Development and Infant Behavior and Development, and is a fellow of the American Psychological Association. She chaired the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) Arts & Sciences Deans Group and serves as a trustee of the Erikson Institute in Chicago.

Mangelsdorf earned her undergraduate degree in psychology from Oberlin College in Ohio and her doctoral degree in child psychology from the University of Minnesota. In 2012, she received the Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award from the College of Education and Human Development at the University of Minnesota.

BOARD OF REGENTS

Regina Millner

University of Wisconsin System Regent Regina Millner, of Madison, Wisconsin, was elected president of the Board in June 2015. She was first appointed to the Board in 2012.

Millner's career as a lawyer and consultant in commercial real estate spans more than 30 years. She has served in leadership positions on the boards of many for-profit and not-for-profit corporations, including MGE Energy, CG Schmidt, the Wisconsin Alumni Association, the UW–Madison Athletic Board, the Wisconsin Real Estate Alumni Association, the Chazen Art Museum Council and the Chancellor's Advisory Board. She is also very active in the Madison community, having served on the boards of the Rotary Club of Madison, Meriter Hospital and Health Services, Madison Symphony Orchestra and the Madison Children's Museum, among others.

A proud Badger alumna, Millner earned her law degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School and her master's degree in real estate and urban land economics from the Wisconsin School of Business. She also earned an undergraduate degree in education from the University of Nebraska–Lincoln.

WISCONSIN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Kelli Trumble

Kelli Trumble is chair of the Wisconsin Alumni Association's President's Advisory Council.

Trumble began her career in print media, following her studies in the UW–Madison School of Journalism and Mass Communication. After her hometown pride compelled her to return to Wisconsin Dells, she built Sundara Inn and Spa, named one of the top five destination spas in the world by readers of Travel + Leisure magazine. She served a fruitful tenure as executive director of the Wisconsin Dells Visitor and Convention Bureau, then spent four years as Wisconsin's secretary of tourism. She currently serves on the leadership team responsible for creating the new Dells River Arts District, a $40 million revitalization project for the downtown Wisconsin Dells area, where she owns several retail ventures.

Trumble received her undergraduate degree in journalism from UW–Madison in 1979.

STUDENT KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Leah Fraleigh

The Winter 2015 commencement ceremony marks the first time that the student keynote speaker has been chosen by the senior class officers. Prospective speakers submitted draft speeches and delivered live presentations to the officers and commencement staff.

Leah Fraleigh, who will graduate with majors in strategic communications and philosophy, as well as a leadership certificate, has been selected to address her fellow graduates at the Winter 2015 commencement ceremony.

Fraleigh, of New Berlin, Wisconsin, has served as an orientation leader, programming intern, and communications intern with the Center for the First-Year Experience, as well as a copy editor for the Badger Herald. An avid volunteer, Fraleigh has served the UW Law School Family Court Clinic as well as Camp Ammon, a co-ed Scout camp. After graduation, she plans to gain work experience before applying to law school.

Fraleigh's inspiration came from a TED Talk by Drew Dudley, encouraging viewers to be leaders through their everyday actions. "Everyone has an innate ability to change the direction of someone's life, be it an infinitesimal transformation or a complete revolution," says Fraleigh. "The Wisconsin Experience has prepared us for a lifetime of moments in which we can be catalysts for change. We need to recognize our potential for greatness, and not be ignorant of the impact we can have on others."

Senior Class Officers

Officers for the Class of 2016 were elected through Associated Students of Madison (ASM) spring elections prior to beginning their service in the fall of their senior year.

Part of the Division of Student Life, the officers also partner with the Wisconsin Alumni Association (WAA) and the UW Foundation. The Senior Class Officers plan spring and winter commencement as well as senior social events and senior week events in cooperation with WAA.

Andrew (AJ) Hipke, president

Hipke, of White Lake, Wisconsin, majors in finance and economics. At the Wisconsin School of Business, he currently serves as president of the Finance & Investment Society. Previously, he served as a freshman representative for ASM and vice president of advocacy for BBA Gov. He interned this past summer at Fisher Investments in Portland, Oregon. After graduation, he plans to take the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) exam and work full-time.

Bhupinder Manhani, vice president

Manhani, of Verona, Wisconsin, majors in biology and political science. He serves on the executive board for BadgerThon, a student organization that aims to support and raise money for patients of the American Family Children's Hospital.

Throughout his time as an undergraduate, he has enjoyed volunteering at St. Mary's Adult Day Center and spending time with older adults in the Madison community. After graduation, he plans to earn a Master of Health Care Administration degree, with the goal of working in the field of health administration.

Dixon Chan, treasurer

Chan, of Evanston, Illinois and Hong Kong, majors in economics with a certificate in criminal justice. Nominated for the Center for Leadership and Involvement's Outstanding Freshman Award, he has served as secretary for ASM's Finance Committee and vice president of the UW Pre-Law Society. In addition, Chan is on the leadership team for his campus ministry group, the Navigators. Off campus, he has interned at the Chicago Office of the Mayor and currently interns in Pretrial Services for the U.S. District Court in Madison. Following graduation, he plans to earn a law degree along with certification as a CPA.

Bill Mulligan, secretary

Mulligan, of Lake Mills, Wisconsin, majors in biochemistry. On campus, he served as the Director of the Distinguished Lecture Series and Vice President of Program Administration for the Wisconsin Union. He has competed nationally for the UW Cycling Team and is a two-time Wisconsin State Cycling Champion. Selected as a Barry Goldwater Scholar, he has also spent countless hours in his research lab, authoring two publications and presenting at a national conference. He was a finalist for both the Rhodes and Marshall Scholarship and is currently undecided about his post-graduation plans.

The University of Wisconsin–Madison

The University of Wisconsin–Madison and its alumni have a rich tradition of national and international leadership in teaching, research, entrepreneurship and public service. We regularly rank near the top in research dollars and are rated among the strongest in the world in international reputation. And, as any visitor can readily attest, our beautiful lakeshore campus is considered to be among the nation’s most picturesque.

This university has existed for as long as Wisconsin has been a state, tracing its roots to a clause in the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin decreeing that the young state should have a prominent public university. In 1848, legislators passed a bill that formally created the University of Wisconsin. Its first class, with 17 students, met in Madison on February 5, 1849.

From these humble beginnings, the university has grown into a large, diverse community with more than 43,000 students representing every county in Wisconsin, 50 states, and 123 countries.

Across campus, the words “sifting and winnowing” often appear when describing UW–Madison’s intellectual life. They date back to an 1894 Board of Regents statement on academic freedom:

“Whatever may be the limitations which trammel inquiry elsewhere, we believe that the great state University of Wisconsin should ever encourage that continual and fearless sifting and winnowing by which alone the truth can be found.”

Inspired by this spirit, scholarly inquiry has fed a steady stream of discoveries. From vitamins, agricultural techniques and wildlife ecology to stem cells, biofuels and economic well-being, the university continues to foster ideas and research that change lives.

UW–Madison is the oldest and largest campus in the University of Wisconsin System. Its mission is to provide “a learning environment in which faculty, staff and students can discover, examine critically, preserve and transmit the knowledge, wisdom and values that will help ensure the survival of this and future generations and improve the quality of life for all.”

The university strives to achieve these ends through the continual advancement of its teaching, research and public service programs. Throughout its history, the university has sought to bring the power of learning into students’ daily lives through innovations such as residential learning communities and service learning courses.

We are motivated by the “Wisconsin Idea” — articulated a century ago as the principle that the university’s influence should benefit everyone in the state. Today, this principle has expanded to a global scale. The Wisconsin Idea continues to permeate everything we do, helping to forge close partnerships between faculty, staff and students, and people, communities, and industries around the world.

Program Notes

The school and college flags used in today's ceremony were commissioned for this event by Chancellor Rebecca Blank. They are used in this and other similar ceremonies, including the Chancellor's Convocation for first-year students — the complementary celebration to Commencement in students' university careers.

The flags' background wave design reflects the university's location along Lake Mendota. Colors on each flag reflect the traditional academic colors for the courses of study within each school or college. The Graduate School, School of Education and College of Letters & Science are multicolored, representing their varied disciplines. Flags also feature the year in which each school or college was founded, from 1848 for the Law School and School of Medicine and Public Health (authorized in the charter for the newly created university) to 1983 for the School of Veterinary Medicine.

Flag bearers in the opening procession were selected by the dean of each school and college to represent their fellow students:

Academic Attire

Formal academic attire is an important component of the pageantry of the commencement ceremony.

Gowns

Gowns represent the three principal levels of academic achievement. The bachelor's gown, symbolizing the first degree, is made of black material and has a closed front and long, pointed, open sleeves. Master's candidates wear a black gown with a closed front and long, closed sleeves. The gown worn by doctoral candidates has an open front with bell-shaped sleeves. Doctoral gowns are further embellished with velvet trim in the form of crossbars on the sleeves. These are generally black but may be colored to represent the profession or major field of interest. Some doctoral gowns are colored to represent the distinctive identity of a particular institution. The latter types of gowns are generally worn without the hood.

Hoods

Academic hoods are used as a further means of identifying the level of degree attainment. The bachelor's hood, worn only by those who have previously received a baccalaureate degree, is rather short with a narrow velvet edging the color of the appropriate discipline and a lining in the color of the institution—cardinal at Wisconsin. The master's hood is considerably longer, has a wider velvet edging and exposes more of the lining. Doctoral hoods have the widest velvet edging, wide panels at either side, greater length and a fully exposed lining.

Caps and Tassels

Candidates for the bachelor's degree wear the black mortarboard cap with tassels of their course color. The tassel is worn on the right side until the formal conferral of the degree. At that time, the tassel is moved from the right to the left side. Candidates for all higher degrees wear black mortarboard caps with black tassels on the left side. Some holders of degrees from other countries or institutions wear special hats which are distinctive to their degree. Graduates displaying the red and white philanthropy cord have chosen to make a financial gift commitment of support to the university.

Honors

Bachelor's degree candidates with distinctive scholastic achievement (the top 20 percent within the school or college) wear cardinal stoles over the fronts of their gowns. Bachelor's degree candidates participating in an honors program wear white stoles with cardinal bars. Law degree candidates who have been awarded the Dean's Academic Achievement Award are similarly distinguished by cardinal stoles.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE CANDIDATES

This list of undergraduate degree candidates was compiled from information available to the Office of the Registrar as of November 13, 2015 and should not be regarded as conclusive evidence of graduation or academic standing.

Selection as an honors candidate indicates participation in the honors program in the student's school or college and does not necessarily indicate fulfillment of the requirements for a degree with honors.

A student selected for distinctive scholastic achievement has completed a minimum of 60 credits at UW–Madison and has a cumulative grade-point average placing her/him within the top 20% of graduating students in the school or college.
